

Subject PSHE

Theme Rights and Respect

Term Spring 2

What should I already know?

- I understand that humans have rights and responsibilities.
- I know ways that I can contribute to the decision-making process in school.
- I know that everyone can make a difference within a democratic process.
- I know what 'influence' means.
- I know that reports in the media can influence the way we think about a topic.
- I know what 'income' and 'expenditure' mean.

What should I be able to do by the end of the unit?

- I can identify and discuss issues currently in the media concerning health and wellbeing.
- I can express my opinions and make recommendations on issues concerning health and wellbeing.
- I can suggest questions a consumer should ask before buying a product.
- I can suggest advice for a range of situations involving personal finance.

What should I know by the end of the unit?

- I know the difference between a fact and an opinion.
- I understand what biased reporting is and the need to think critically about things I read.
- I know the costs involved in producing and selling an item.
- I understand the terms loan, credit, debit and interest.
- I know some areas for which local councils have responsibility.
- I understand that local councillors are elected to represent their local community.

Key Vocabulary

fact	Something that is true.
opinion	Someone's view or judgement.
biased	An account that is unfairly prejudiced for or against someone or something.
loan	Money that is borrowed that is expected to be paid back with interest.
interest	Money paid back to a lender as payment for a loan.
credit	Obtaining goods or services before payment.
debit	A sum owed to someone else.
council	A group of people elected to represent the community.
councillor	An elected representative of a community.