

ENGLISH – Writing

Non-Fiction:

First World War Diaries
Second World War Newsreels

Fiction:

Suspense Writing → The Giant's Necklace by Michael Morpurgo & Short Film – Alma

HISTORY

Exploring a significant turning point in British history: the World Wars and the events that preceded and caused them

GEOGRAPHY

Exploring the formation of the physical features of contrasting coastlines around the UK: beaches, stacks, stumps, arches, cliffs, bays, headlands, caves, wave cut platforms, longshore drift

MATHS

Fractions, Decimals & Percentages:
Calculating with Fractions;
Converting between F, D & P; Finding F, D or P of amounts Numbers – Prime, Square, Cubed Coordinates; Line graphs; Scales; Measures; Perimeter; Ratio

READING

Fiction: Goodnight Mister Tom by Michelle Magorian
Free Verse Poetry: The Lost Words
by Robert McFarlane Non-Fiction: Space Tourism;
The Giant Panda Bear

Sandbags and Sirens
Living on the Edge

SCIENCE

Electricity
Light

COMPUTING

Search technologies
Coding (Python)

PE & GAMES

INDOOR PE:
Fitness and healthy lifestyle
OUTDOOR GAMES:
Hockey, Netball,
Football and Rugby
+ FOREST SCHOOL
Outdoor Learning

ART & DT

Explore the work of Henry Moore to inspire a clay-based project, producing miniature models of
evacuees from WWII Explore the work of Mike Kingston to inspire a project,
producing work linked to Beach huts

MUSIC

Music of War: Explore music capturing the theme of 'war' and
use this to inspire
the composition of a military march

PSHCE

Visit by the Community Officer
for PSHE talks focusing on the theme of Keeping Safe Online, being aware of potential risks and how to deal with problems
that may arise

RE

Why do Hindus want to be good?
What do Christians believe Jesus did to 'save' people?

FRENCH

At the weekend:
Learn how to:
-tell the time
-say about activities that they do