What should I know already?	What should I know by the end of the unit?	Language skills being developed
How to give our personal details from memory (name, age and where we live).            How to express an opinion.            How to use connectives in my work.	• Ask what the time is in French. • Tell the time accurately in French. • Learn how to say what I do at the weekend in French. • Learn to integrate connectives into my work. • Present an account of what I do at the weekend.	To be able to say and write what activities you do at the weekend, at what time you do them but also whether you like them or not. This unit will also encourage us to link our ideas together using more conjunctions and to create longer and more interesting replies as we will also try to include an opinion.

Grammar focus	Phonics focus	Vocabulary
Verbs, conjunctions and opinions. Revision and consolidation of a variety of first person singular high frequency verbs such as je vais and je joue. Also being introduced to new verbs such as je regarde, je lis and the reflexive verbs je me lève and je me couche. New conjunctions and opinions for joining two phrases together and opinions.	QU Ç GNE EN AN • QU sound in quelle, informatique &amp; musique • AN sound in bandes, amusant, intéressant &amp; fatigant • EN sound in prends &amp; finalement • Silent letters. Hearing and seeing that the 's' is not pronounced in heures, and the 't' is not pronounced in amusant, barbant or fatigant. This is often the case when these consonants are the last letters in French words. • Elision. J'écoute. Dropping of the last letter of a word (in this case the 'e' in je) and replacing it with an apostrophe. Attaching it to the word that follows which begins with a vowel or mute 'h'. This is in order to facilitate pronunciation.	Le week-end – the weekend            Quelle heure est-il? – What time is it?
